CALCUTTA GENERAL POST OFFICE,
The 22nd, October 1872.

Postal Notice.

THE subjoined regulations regarding book packets and pattern packets for places abroad, have been prescribed in supersession of the regulations given at pages 54 to 58 of the Postal Guide of May 31st, 1872. The modifications consist principally of revised limits of weight for packets of patterns addressed to certain European countries.

A. M. MONTEATH,

Dir.-Genl. of the Post Office of India.

SIMLA,
The 8th October 1872.

REGULATIONS REGARDING PACKETS OF BOOKS OR SAMPLES FOR PLACES ABROAD.

In the subjoined table will be found quoted opposite each country and route the particular regulations of the book and pattern post applicable to each, the quotations being in the form of B (for books) followed by the numbers of any of the special clauses of the book regulations which may apply, and P (for patterns) followed by the numbers of any of the special clauses of the pattern regulations which may apply.

2. Besides the particular regulations so quoted the following conditions apply to all packets whether of books or patterns.

3. The required postage (see Postal Guide) must be fully pre-paid by means of postage stamps affixed outside the packet or its cover, except in respect of packets addressed to the United Kingdom, which can be forwarded with or without pre-payment at the option of the sender.

4. No packet may exceed five pounds in weight, and for some countries and routes lower limits of weight are given in the table.

5. The general limit of size is two feet in length, and one foot in breadth or depth, and where a different limit of size prevails, it is given in the table.

6. No explosive or dangerous or offensive substance or material may be sent, such as gunpowder, matches, percussion caps, saltpetre, indigo, assafoetida, paint-powder, glass, liquids, &c., or any article which, either in itself (however packed) or by reason of insecure packing, or of packing in cases with sharp corners, may be liable to injure the contents of the mail bags or the persons of the mail officers.

7. If any of these conditions, or of the particular regulations quoted in the table be infringed, and the infringement be detected at the office of origin, the packet will not be forwarded, and, if detected at any other office (in India or abroad), it will be liable to be stopped or charged as an unpaid letter.

BOOK PACKETS.

B.

8. These regulations are applicable to book packets transmitted to the places and by the routes marked B in the subjoined table. Except where special relaxations are quoted, book packets may contain only books and printed papers, and such books and printed papers must not contain any writing or other manuscript marks besides the name and address of the person to whom they are sent. Every book packet must be posted either without a cover, or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and in such a manner as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination.

9. These regulations are subject to certain variations in respect of particular countries and routes, which variations are quoted in the subjoined table by adding to the letter B the numbers of such of the following clauses as apply :

- (1.)—Besides books and printed papers, a packet may, in cases where this clause is quoted, contain paper or other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing, whether plain or written or printed upon (to the exclusion of any written letter or communication of the nature of a letter), photographs when not on glass or in frames containing glass or any like substance, and anything usually appertaining to such articles in the way of binding and mounting, or necessary for their safe transmission by post.

- (2.)—In cases where this clause is quoted, unbound proof sheets (but these only) are permitted to contain ordinary corrections of the press.

- (3.)—Where this clause is quoted, cases, rollers, maps, book-markers, pencils, pens, &c., may be sent in a packet of printed papers.

- (4.)—Where this clause is quoted, photographs on paper may be sent.

- (5.)—Where this clause is quoted, books must be unbound, and no prints, music, maps or drawings are allowed, unless they form part of the publication with which they are sent.

- (6.)—Where this clause is quoted, a packet may also contain the written name and address of the sender.

PATTERN PACKETS.

P

10. These regulations are applicable to pattern packets transmitted to the places and by the routes marked P in the subjoined table. The contents of a pattern packet are restricted to bond fide trade patterns or samples of merchandize, and must not (except where provided for under the special clauses) be of intrinsic value. Goods sent for sale or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another, which are not actual patterns or samples, are not admissible. There must be no writing or printing upon or in any packet, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the name and address of the sender, a trade-mark, or number and the price of the articles. Patterns or samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination. But samples of seeds, drugs and such like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind—but such articles only—may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen, or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

11. These regulations are subject to certain variations in respect of particular countries and routes, which variations are quoted in the subjoined table by adding to the letter P the numbers of such of the following clauses as apply :

- (1.)—Where this clause is quoted, samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles which cannot be sent in open covers, may be sent in bags entirely closed, provided such closed bags are transparent, so as to enable the officers of the Post Office readily to satisfy themselves as to the nature of the contents.

- (2.)—Where this clause is quoted, samples of intrinsic value may be sent, but they must, nevertheless, be bond fide samples of merchandize, all articles of value, such as Cashmere shawls, dressing gowns, scarfs, &c., being considered as beyond the scope of this rule.
